

1. Start by cutting along the solid lines—take your time and keep those edges neat.
2. Fold along the dotted lines to bring your pages together. A good crease makes all the difference!
3. Match the page numbers and stack them in order.
4. Staple it together along the folded edge to hold everything in place.
5. Flip through and enjoy! You've just made your very own mini book.

It's America's SEMIQUINCENTENNIAL!

That's a BIG WORD for a 250th birthday!

Have a little fun with this teeny tiny activity book and take a moment to think about how libraries connect you to our nation's story and your place in it!
